Summer Social Afternoon Tea

It was really good to see and meet so many “Friends” face to face, and to be able to celebrate the Queen’s Platinum Jubilee with you all.

As you can see from the photos we were pleased and honoured to be joined by the Mayor, Cllr. Rishi Fernando, who proposed a toast to the Queen.

Our guests enjoyed a superb buffet – including a plate of marmalade sandwiches.

The afternoon’s entertainment included a table quiz themed around the “Royal Platinum Years”, and it was won by long time supporter and Friend, Georgina McIntyre (Well done Georgina!)

We were treated to a special musical interlude provided by 14 year old saxophonist, Rowan Edwards, who is Sylvia’s (Hovell) talented grandson. Rowan performed two pieces excellently, which were enjoyed by everyone – many thanks Rowan!!

Fair to say the 30 or so guests were astonished when The Queen, Prince Charles and Anne, the Princess Royal, joined our celebration, “One was very much amused!”

The Queen cut a celebration cake before showing us that she does indeed carry a marmalade sandwich in her handbag!

Thank you to everyone who helped make the afternoon a success and to everyone who attended, it was lovely to see you all again!
